THE FINAL MONTH FOR “A SUMMER OF SHERLOCK”

As a part of our ongoing commitment to the arts, WeHoTV is pleased to continue broadcasting shows produced by, and made available to us, on extended loan from the National Gallery of Art in Washington, DC. These popular programs include more than fifty titles covering a very broad range of arts and artists. This month we will air a seven part series on American Artists of the nineteenth century. These segments explore the lives and careers of John James Audubon, William Merritt Chase, Frederic Edwin Church, Winslow Homer, Thomas Moran, John F. Peto, and James McNeill Whistler. We hope that you enjoy and appreciate these artist profiles, and all of our arts programming. And as always, if you have comments about our programming, or if you just want to reach out and say “Hi,” you can give us a call at (323) 848-6388, e-mail us at wehotv@weho.org, or you can leave a comment on Facebook or Twitter @wehotv. Thanks for watching.

CITY CINEMA

with Tom Hatten

Film historian Tom Hatten introduces these classic movies, and provides fun information about the films and the people involved in making them. Watch a new (old) movie each week, on WeHoTV.
