“WEST HORRORWOOD THEATER” RETURNS. HAPPY HALLOWEEN, WEHO!

You know how much West Hollywood loves Halloween, and WeHoTV celebrates each October with our own “West Horrorwood Theater,” a series of horror films introduced by Claudette Sexy DJ, and her mysterious sidekick Vamuse, played by Daniel Lawson. Look for a new movie each week in October, starting with the 1932 classic “The Most Dangerous Game,” starring Faye Wray and Joel McCrea. In the following weeks we will play (in this order) “Isle of the Snake People” from 1971, “Horror Express” from 1972, “Frankenstein’s Castle of Freaks” from 1974, and “House on Haunted Hill” released in 1959. The commentary by Claudette and Vamuse was produced, written, and directed by WeHoTV’s own Jesse Lawson. We hope you enjoy it. In addition to West Horrorwood Theater, we will play a selection of classic horror films all day on the 30th and 31st. The staff at WeHoTV hope you enjoy the movies, and please have a happy and safe Halloween.
