For other locations throughout LA County call (213) 974-2811 or visit the website

For deaf and hard of hearing - (800) 801-5551

<http://pd.co.la.ca.us/>

The Public Defender is a law office established and funded by the County of Los Angeles. The attorneys and other staff employed by the office render legal services to individuals who are accused of public offenses, and who cannot afford to retain the services of a private attorney. They also represent any person under the age of 18 who is facing juvenile delinquency proceedings, or regarding whom the state has instituted wardship proceedings because of habitual truancy or incorrigibility. They represent individuals who are involuntarily detained in medical facilities in a variety of mental health proceedings because of purported mental disabilities, those as to whom conservatorship proceedings have been instituted because they are alleged to be gravely disabled, and patients whose competency to refuse medical treatment is challenged. Finally, they represent individuals who are subject to contempt proceedings for violation of court orders, such as child support and child visitation or custody orders.

SELF-HELP LEGAL ACCESS CENTER

<http://www.lafla.org/service.php?sect=muni&sub=selfhelp>

Developed and funded by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, the Self-Help Legal Access Center (SHLAC) program is administered by the Los Angeles County Department of Consumer Affairs, and operated by Neighborhood Legal Services (NLS) and Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles (LAFLA). The SHLAC program provides information and resources to people that are representing themselves in court without the help of an attorney. SHLACs provide information about court procedures, distribute court forms, provide legal professionals to review court forms after they have been filled out, host workshops and provide one-on-one assistance.

(213) 385-2977
www.publiccounsel.org

Public Counsel is dedicated to advancing equal justice under the law by delivering free legal and social services to the most vulnerable members of the community, including abused and abandoned children, homeless families and veterans, senior citizens, victims of consumer fraud and nonprofit organizations serving low-income communities. They are the public interest law office of the Los Angeles County and Beverly Hills Bar Associations and the Southern California affiliate of the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.

PUBLIC GUARDIAN

Department of Mental Health
320 W. Temple
Los Angeles, CA 90012
(213) 974-0515

The Director of County Mental Health/Public Guardian functions as the legal guardian or conservator of the person and estate of individuals whom the court has determined to be unable to provide their basic needs of food, clothing and/or shelter. Referrals to the Public Guardian's Office are accepted only from mental health professionals designated to evaluate for both the grave disability (inability to provide for one's basic personal needs for food, clothing or shelter) and the mental disorder. If you, as a relative, friend, or other concerned citizen believe another person needs a Conservator, the proper course to follow is for you to contact the appropriate source and request an evaluation for grave disability and referral to the Public Guardian as follows:

- If the patient is in an acute psychiatric hospital designated by the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health to accept and treat involuntary patients, contact the treating therapist at the hospital and request an evaluation for conservatorship.
- If the patient is living at home or residing in any other facility, contact the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health's Regional Office that covers the area where the patient is located and request a conservatorship evaluation.
