

2013 Public Safety Town Hall Meeting

Saturday, July 20, 2013, 9:30 a.m. - 12 Noon

Plummer Park Community Center, Rooms 5 and 6
7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood

Please join us for a very informative meeting. Don't miss this opportunity to hear from an FBI expert on Human Trafficking. The discussion will include Forced Labor and Sex Trafficking. This meeting will also provide you with an opportunity to refresh your skills and knowledge on how to be prepared for a disaster.

 The Neighborhood Watch group that has the highest number of attendees at this Town Hall Meeting will receive a two-person emergency backpack for each person in attendance. Only one Neighborhood Watch group can win. So start advertising this event and get those warm bodies in those seats on July 20th! ***

AGENDA

9:30 a.m. Refreshments/Registration

10:00 a.m. Introductory Remarks

10:15 a.m. Presentation: Disaster Preparedness Refresher

Maria Grycan, Community Services Representative, LA County Fire Dept.

11:00 a.m. Break/CPR Training

11:15 a.m. Presentation: Human Trafficking: Forced Labor & Sex Trafficking

Sal J. Randazzo, Jr., Supervisory Special Agent, FBI, Criminal Division, Civil Rights Squad

12:00 p.m. Presentation of emergency backpacks to the winning Neighborhood Watch Group

SOS Survival Products will be available for purchase before and after the event.

Please RSVP

Public Safety Division (323) 848-6414

The City of West Hollywood recognizes its obligation to provide equal access for those qualified individuals with disabilities.

Please call (323) 848-6400 with any request for accommodations at least 72 hours in advance of any activity or class.

City of West Hollywood
California 1984

www.weho.org

*Presented by the West Hollywood
Public Safety Commission*