What's New?

Through March '09 - Eastside Arts Initiative - Go to the Park is a site-specific public art project that shines a light on West Hollywood's vibrant Eastside. Five temporary art projects are installed in Plummer Park to honor the park's historical significance and its community value to the City of West Hollywood. The exhibit runs through the end of March 2009. Plummer Park is located at 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. At the Park's Community Center you will be able to pick up a brochure to learn more about the artists and this intriguing project. To learn more, click here or contact Andrew Campbell at (323) 848-6883 or acampbell@weho.org

You can also go check out the artists' two-dimensional artworks displayed within illuminated bus shelters in the City. You can visit each of these bus shelter locations by downloading the Bus Shelter Map Guide.

"GenderPlay in Lesbian Culture" Exhibit: A first-ever exhibit that challenges our labels, asks us to re-think our stereotypes, and looks at how lesbians define themselves. Exhibit begins March 14, 2009 at 3 pm and runs through March 23rd. Exhibit includes vintage photos, archival documents, film clips and historic first person quotes. Co-sponsored by the City of West Hollywood and the West Hollywood Lesbian and Gay Advisory Board. Located at the ONE LGBT Archives, 626 Robertson Boulevard, West Hollywood, CA 90069. Opening event features appearances by Phranc, Marie Cartier and Butchlalis de Panochtitlan. Admission is free. For more information, please call (323) 848-6471 or thelex-info@gmail.com TTY for the deaf and hard of hearing at (323) 848-6496.

Visual and Fine Arts

Art on the Outside

Peter Shire: Six sculptures by Los Angeles artist Peter Shire will be on display on the Santa Monica Boulevard median between Doheny and Almont Drives through March 2009. These colorful and fanciful sculptures sit on the median of Santa Monica Boulevard, designed specifically to showcase temporary art installations. To view photos showing the installation process and the resulting sculptures, visit our Peter Shire flickr set.

Raymond Pettibon: The City of West Hollywood is pleased to be participating in the 2008 California Biennial with a signature work by artist Raymond Pettibon. The 2008 California Biennial is organized by the Orange County Museum of Art, and curated by Lauri Firstenberg. CB08 is produced in tandem with LA><ART Public Art and Off Site Initiatives with ForYourArt. No Title (I Thought California), 1989/2008 is now on display through March 2009 on the vertical billboard at Sunset and Olive as part of the City's Art on the Outside program.
