2. PUBLIC COMMENT

Laura Boccaleti, WEST HOLLYWOOD, spoke about working group members speaking clearly into the microphone.

3. NEW BUSINESS

A. Eastside Tour Discussion

Cathy Blaivas expressed concern for the identity of the eastside changing and mobility.

Michael Dolan stated that the City has a clear, identifiable gateway entry on the Eastside because of successful development in the area.

Chad Blouin stated he would prefer keeping the neighborhood as it is, rather than developing a new identity.

Lauren Meister, WEST HOLLYWOOD, suggested having visual examples of what the area could look like, as well as minding the demographics as they will be changing.

B. Eastside Demographic Profile

Bianca Siegl reviewed demographic information requested at the previous meeting.

Chad Blouin clarified comments regarding maintaining the identity of the east side.

Jeff Yarbrough agreed that there should be organic development rather than imposing a brand on the area.

Lisa Andreson said that she likes the idea of the current neighborhood with a fresh coat of paint.

Marina Berkman agreed and added that most issues are the same throughout the city.

Motion: For the purposes of the Eastside Community Plan, refer to the Eastside as a neighborhood but know that it is part the City of West Hollywood.

Moved: Michael Dolan Second: Chad Blouin
All Aye.
Motion passed.

C. Discussion of Topics for Eastside Community Plan

Loreli Cappel, helped the Working Group prioritize the list of topics for the Eastside Community Plan using a voting system.

D. Next Agenda

Bianca Siegl explained next steps.

State of the City Event-

Lisa Andreson, Chad Blouin, Michael Dolan, Neal Zaslavsky, Jeff Yarbrough will attend. Cathy Blaivas will be an alternate.

4. WORKING GROUP MEMBER COMMENTS

Neal Zaslavsky stated that no landlords are losing money due to rent control.

Michael Dolan said that he does not support big box businesses in the neighborhood, but knows that market demands may dictate what businesses come into the neighborhood.

Cathy Blaivas expressed concern for single family development in neighborhoods on the eastside and suggested creating Overlay Zone and Design Guidelines. She commended staff and the working group.

Jesse Slansky thanked staff and listed a few items.

- An example of good planning is the development on the corner of Fairfax and Waring.
- Sometimes buildings outlive their usefulness
- Placing utilities underground
- Eliminating some left turns on Santa Monica Boulevard
- Utilizing one-way streets and angled parking
- Satellite library

Chad Blouin suggested restoring lost driveways.
