TED GREEN, WEST HOLLYWOOD, spoke about his experience as a campaign manager. He noted that he is a lobbyist. He expressed concern with Recommendations 1 and 8 in the Task Force Recommendations to the City Council.

GENEVIEVE MORRILL, PRESIDENT/CEO OF THE WEST HOLLYWOOD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, spoke regarding the definition of lobbyist. She expressed concern with the Chamber's contract with the City if the definition of lobbyist is changed.

MARK LEHMANN, WEST HOLLYWOOD, spoke about the definition of a lobbyist.

3. Chair Guardarrama spoke about Recommendation 1 and the need for all campaign communications to be submitted to the City for legal compliance. He shared that both the cities of Los Angeles and San Francisco require it. Task Force Member Kanin also noted that it is educational to the public. Task Force Member Ralston noted that it's also valuable to other candidates. Chair Guardarrama also noted that one of the recommendations is that the City enter into a contract with the Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) for enforcement services.

Ms. Morrill spoke about the Chamber of Commerce's PAC noting that it is separate from the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Green commented that submitting all campaign communications to the City is burdensome. He further commented that ballot initiatives should not be subject to the requirement. Mr. Guardarrama responded to Mr. Green's comments.

Chair Guardarrama spoke about Recommendation 8 and indicated that the City Council asked the Task Force to look into whether campaign consultants should lobby in the City. The Task Force noted that they needed a compelling reason to regulate and found none. He shared that the Task Force recommends the same requirements as the State requires of lobbyists.

Chair Guardarrama introduced Recommendation 3. He commented that the City is behind other cities including Beverly Hills and Los Angeles. The City currently requires registration; however, the City does not require reporting of money received or expended to influence municipal action.

ED LEVIN, WEST HOLLYWOOD, spoke in opposition to Recommendation 3.

Chair Guardarrama noted that many other cities require professionals like Mr. Levin's profession to register as a lobbyist. He shared that administrative testimony would not meet the threshold of lobbyist unless there are ex parte communications. Task Force Member Kanin spoke about the reason for setting a monetary threshold. Chair Guardarrama mentioned the City of Los Angeles' Ethics Commission and the two-page FAQ for land use professionals. He also noted that these recommendations were made to the City Council in 2015 as well. Ms. Morrill inquired if the Task Force is open to other definitions of lobbyist.

Chair Guardarrama asked his fellow Task Force members if they are open to exploring the definition of lobbyist. Task Force Member Kanin read the definition of lobbyist into the record. Mr. Lehman requested that the definition be less broad. He noted that the dollar amount threshold isn't the issue. Chair Guardarrama indicated that the Task Force is open to discussing further and encouraged feedback from those that spoke under public comment. Ms. Morrill commented the Chamber of Commerce advocates not lobbyist.

SHERRIE FRANKLIN, UNKNOWN, spoke about other Chambers of Commerce in the area.

A discussion ensued regarding whether the West Hollywood Chamber of Commerce would be subject to the definition of lobbyist.

A discussion ensued regarding the proposed reporting requirements. Chair Guardarrama commented that the Task Force is recommending quarterly reporting of who paid them, what topic areas they lobbied, and how much they were paid. Mr. Lehman expressed concern with attorney/client privilege. Chair Guardarrama responded. The Task Force discussed the possibility of adding reporting thresholds be considered for lobbyists i.e., if less than 20% of your work is lobbying then there isn't a reporting requirement.

The Task Force indicated that the Chamber of Commerce and its members be given two to three months to provide their comments about the changes to the lobbyist definition and the proposed reporting requirements.

Assistant City Attorney Langer noted for the record that Recommendation 3 in the draft City Council Staff Report will be removed from the report until further discussion with the public. The other recommendations will move forward to the City Council.

Task Force Member Kanin responded to Mr. Green's earlier comments about campaign communication reporting recommendations to the City Council.
