INDEMNITY FOR VALET

The Valet Company agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend the City and its City Council and each member thereof, and every officer and employee of the City, from and against any and all liability, damages, judgments or financial loss resulting from any suits, claims, losses, or actions brought by any person and from all costs and expenses of litigation, including attorney fees and expert fees, by reason of injury to any property or any person arising from the Valet Company's operations under this permit. Such indemnity shall include, but not be limited to, any and all liabilities, demands, claims, damages, losses, costs and expenses caused or alleged to have been caused by any negligent or other act of the Valet Company, any subcontractor and anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable. The Valet Company shall promptly pay any final judgment rendered against the City (and its officers, officials and employees) covered by this indemnity obligation. It is expressly understood and agreed that the foregoing provisions are intended to be as broad and inclusive as is permitted by the law of the State of California and will survive termination or expiration of this permit. The Valet Company's obligation to indemnify shall not be restricted to insurance proceeds, if any, received by City of West Hollywood, its officials, officers, employees, agents or volunteers. This indemnification obligation excludes liability resulting from the sole active negligence or wrongful conduct of the City of West Hollywood.
