

Featured This Week

The City of West Hollywood presents
A 25th Anniversary
CELEBRATION OF ART in West Hollywood

WeHo@25

Through November 27, 2010, Sat. 12 p.m.-5 p.m. & By Appointment—8270 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. WeHo @ 25—The City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission presents a 25th Anniversary Celebration in Art. The exhibit features 47 works by 45 artists, each with a special connection to the Creative City, and is curated by Howard N. Fox, Curator Emeritus of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles County Museum of Art. The exhibition is housed in a temporary gallery, a Pop Up Art demonstration project for artists and property owners to see how an available space can be animated and enhanced by art. To learn more about WeHo @ 25 and for information about guidelines for Pop Up Art visit www.weho.org/arts or call 323/848-6883.

This Week's Events

November 20, 2010, 11 a.m.—West Hollywood Park Auditorium, 647 N. San Vicente Blvd., West Hollywood. 3rd International Musical Competition of Young Performers "Colibri"— The City of West Hollywood Russian Advisory Board and "Unity in Diversity Arts Foundation" is proud to announce its series of concerts highlighting Russian Culture. The Multicultural Competition of Young Performers "Colibri" promotes the integration of all cultures, increases mutual understanding, and creates a favorable platform for the youth movement of the two countries. Cost $5 per person. For more information, please call 323/848-7988 or 323/848-6826. TTY for the deaf and hard of hearing at 323/848-6496.

November 21, 2010, 3 p.m.—Fiesta Hall, Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Los Angeles Doctors Symphony Orchestra— The program will include the World Premiere of composer Karim Elmahmoudi's "Ancient Dreams," a work based on ancient mythology, universal themes and epic storytelling, and Robert Schumann's "Konzertstück For 4 Horns And Orchestra, Op. 86" featuring Horn Soloists Dylan Hart, Matthew Lussier, Ryan Ramey, Jacqueline Shannon and Vasily Sergeyevich Kalinnikov's rarely performed "Symphony No. 1 in G minor." This concert is sponsored, in part, by a grant from the City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission. For more information, please call 323/848-6535. TTY for the deaf and hard of hearing at 323/848-6496.

Coming Soon

December 5, 2010, 7 p.m.—Hollywood United Methodist Church, 6817 Franklin Ave., Los Angeles. Metropolitan Master Chorale Presents Home—Last minute shopping, the crowds at the mall, tired feet, and in-laws arriving. Presents to wrap, candles to light, latkes to eat, and stockings to fill. And then a melody lingers...and a memory beckons with stories to tell. Visit www.metrosings.org or call 323/342-2263 for tickets and information.

Ongoing Events

Through November 28, 2010, Fri.-Sat. 8 p.m. & Sun. 3 p.m.—MACHA Theatre, 1107 N. Kings Rd., West Hollywood. ELEVATOR—When seven strangers get stuck in an elevator, it's only a matter of time before the truth comes out. Laced with musical sequences and a cinematic style, ELEVATOR is a comedic and emotional ride into the human psyche. Visit www.elevatortheplay.com for information and tickets.

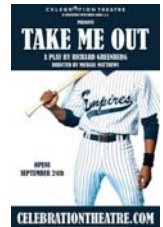

Ongoing Events Continued

Through December 5, 2010, Fri.-Sat. 8 p.m. & Sun. 7 p.m.—L.A. Gay & Lesbian Center's Davidson/Valentini Theatre at The Village at Ed Gould Plaza, 1125 N. McCadden Pl., Los Angeles, CA.

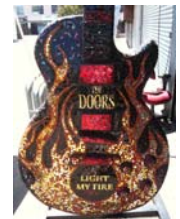

Lemon Durang Pie—Award-winning playwright Christopher Durang is celebrated for his outrageous and often absurd comedies. Lemon Durang Pie presents two of his hilarious one-act plays, A Sty of the Eye and For Whom the Southern Belle Tolls, performed by a cast made up of some of L.A.'s finest veteran and up-and-coming actors. Proceeds from the production will benefit the full range of free and low-cost services provided by the Center. For tickets and information visit www.lagaycenter.org/boxoffice or call 323/860-7300.

Through December 19, 2010, Thurs.-Sat. 8 p.m. & Sun. 3 p.m.—Celebration Theatre, 7051 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles. Take Me Out—Celebration Theatre and Sidney/Kern L.L.C. present the Tony Award winning play Take Me Out. The star center fielder for the champion New York Empire's matter-of-fact announcement that he's gay, throws his team into turmoil and confusion. Visit www.celebrationtheatre.com or call 323/957-1884.

Through December 26, 2010, Fri. 4:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m. & Sat.-Sun. 1 p.m.-5 p.m.—ONE Archives Gallery & Museum, 646 N. Robertson Blvd., West Hollywood. The Glamorous Gaze: Portraits by Mark A. Vieira, 1973-1983—The period following Gay Liberation and preceding AIDS was much like the Roaring Twenties, a time of experimentation, insanity, and self-expression. Mark A. Vieira used his technique-view camera, incandescent lights, and pencil retouching to glamorize subjects he found at Studio One and Circus. This look at the gay disco era has a unique perspective, that of an artist capturing his peers with a lost idiom. For more information, visit the Facebook page dedicated to the exhibition.

Through 2010—The Sunset Strip, Sunset Blvd., West Hollywood.—The Sunset Strip Guitartown—The Sunset Strip Business Association and Gibson Guitar have collaborated on Guitartown, a public art project that features more than 25 ten-foot tall fiberglass Les Paul guitars placed along the iconic Sunset Strip in the City of West Hollywood. Visit <http://thesunsetstrip.com> or www.gibson.com/Sunset-Strip for more information.

Through Summer 2011—Santa Monica Blvd. and Sunset Blvd., West Hollywood. On Route - 66 Lights—In celebration of its 25th Anniversary of Cityhood, West Hollywood celebrates its pre-Cityhood history with a display of vintage neon signs from old Route 66. The exhibition is in collaboration with the Museum of Neon Art. A brochure is available at West Hollywood City Hall, Plummer Park, West Hollywood Library and the Museum of Neon Art. Visit www.weho.org/arts to view a slideshow of the neon featured in the exhibition.

Arts and cultural affairs information and programming is brought to you by the City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission. For more information on the arts in West Hollywood, visit www.weho.org/arts or call 323/848-6883.