

About Heery International, Inc.

The construction manager for the new West Hollywood Library is Heery International, Inc. (Heery). Dan Adams, a Senior Associate at Heery is the Project Director. Heery is a full-service architecture, interior design, engineering, construction management and program management firm, that brings an extraordinary depth of talent, creativity and technical skills to facility and infrastructure projects.

Heery's vision is to deliver responsive and resourceful solutions for their clients, a safe and stimulating workplace for employees, and a legacy of creative contributions to a sustainable built environment.

Founded in 1952, Heery has expanded in new and dramatic ways over the past several years through acquisitions, new services, new markets and new offices, redefining what it means to be responsive, resourceful and diverse. Heery's innovative professionals operate from offices nationwide. Heery is committed to provide the very best design and construction expertise throughout the planning, design, construction and commissioning process.

Heery's impact on both its clients and the community is significant. Recognized for service excellence by a broad spectrum of professional organizations and industry publications, Heery's talented multidisciplinary staff regularly exceeds client requirements — adding value at every turn. Heery's nearly 40 years of dedication to sustainable design and construction practices has helped many clients achieve their first LEED facilities or attain new levels of environmental conservation in particular facility types. Likewise, the firm's award-winning community outreach and corporate citizenship programs have touched communities from Seattle to Miami, making a difference in areas of children/education, home building/repair and the environment.

Heery International, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of London-based Balfour Beatty plc, a world-class engineering, construction, services and investment business. An affiliate of Parsons Brinckerhoff, one of the world's leading professional services companies, Heery now operates as PB's buildings division.

Dan Adams can be reached at (310) 657-4780 or dadams@heery.com